10C.2 Purpose.

The purpose of this chapter is to promote economic growth in this state during this period of revolutionary technological advancement in animal and human health sciences, by providing for the development of industries unrelated to traditional farming, but devoted to the production of life science products derived from animals.

2000 Acts, ch 1197, §3, 10

10C.3 Life science enterprises agricultural land interests.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a life science enterprise may acquire or hold an ownership or leasehold interest in agricultural land if the economic development board approves a life science enterprise plan as provided in section 15.104. A life science enterprise must acquire or hold the agricultural land pursuant to the plan which may be amended as provided by the board. However, the life science enterprise shall not hold a total of more than three hundred twenty acres of agricultural land. The life science enterprise shall hold the land only for purposes of producing life science products according to the life science enterprise plan. In addition, the life science enterprise shall not acquire or hold agricultural land if the life science enterprise receives any form of financing from an Iowa agricultural industry finance corporation as provided in chapter 15E. A life science enterprise that complies with this section may hold the interest in the agricultural land, as provided in the plan, for as long as commercial sales of products produced from the agricultural land are subject to the following:

1. The sale of life science products.
2. The sale of cull livestock kept on the agricultural land, surplus commodities produced as feed for livestock kept on the agricultural land, or life science by-products.

2000 Acts, ch 1197, §4, 10

10C.4 Enforcement penalties.

1. The office of attorney general or a county attorney shall enforce the provisions of this chapter.
2. A life science enterprise violating this chapter shall be assessed a civil penalty of not more than twenty-five thousand dollars. Each day that a violation exists shall constitute a separate offense. In addition, the life science enterprise shall divest itself of any land held in violation of this chapter within one year after judgment. The court may determine the method of divesting an interest held by a life science enterprise found to be in violation of this chapter. A financial gain realized by the enterprise which disposes of an interest held in violation of this chapter shall be forfeited to the general fund of the state. All court costs and fees shall be paid by the enterprise holding the interest in violation of this chapter.
3. The courts of this state may prevent and restrain violations of this chapter through the issuance of an injunction. The attorney general or a county attorney shall institute suits on behalf of the state to prevent and restrain violations of this chapter.

2000 Acts, ch 1197, §5, 10

10C.5 Repeal.

Sections 10C.1 through 10C.4 and this section are repealed July 1, 2008.

2000 Acts, ch 1197, §6, 10; 2004 Acts, ch 1175, §218
